

Caucasus University

Caucasus School of Governance

Course	Course title
Course Code
Annotation of the Course	The aim of the certificate course is to acquaint participants with information about the principles of public administration and the management of public organizations. Many innovative ideas in the field of public management, such as performance evaluation and others, are mainly based on the models of administration that participants will study during the course. The course is designed in such a way that participants get full knowledge about the formation of different systems and models of public administration and study the principles of public organization management. Besides, they will get information about the public administration development processes in Western European countries, as well as Central and Eastern Europe and Georgia Topics <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Development of public administration as an independent branch of science ➤ Theories of organizational management ➤ Participative management, ➤ NPM reforms ➤ Development of public administration in Western Europe ➤ Public Administration Reform in Central and Eastern Europe ➤ Using the elements of NPM in public service ➤ Public administration in Georgia ➤ Reforms process in Georgia, 2004 - 2022 ➤ Local self-government and decentralization in Georgia; ➤ Public Private Partnership ➤ Public policy; ➤ Development of public policy system in CEE countries
ECTS	5 ECTS
School, Grade/Level, Group	School
	Teaching Grade		<input type="checkbox"/> BA <input type="checkbox"/> MA <input type="checkbox"/> PHD <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Training

Lecturer	Nino Dolidze
Academic Degree	Professor
Academic Position	Invited lecturer
E-mail	nidolidze@cu.edu.ge

Objectives of the Course	During the course, participants will study <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - modern and classical approaches to state management. - the history of the development of public administration as an academic discipline and the main theories of the field - the basic principles of management of public organizations - the essence of ongoing reforms in Georgia and the world - historical aspects of the development of public administration systems. The course is focused on helping the participant develop analytical thinking skills and develop a problem-solving vision, which is especially necessary for public servants and public policy expert-analysts. The main activities are case studies and discussions with the participation of the participants.
Learning Outcomes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Knowledge of the main features of the Georgian and European public administration and self-government system, the principles and norms of the functioning of institutions 2. In-depth study of the field of public administration, knowledge of adjacent fields and main institutions, their functions and principles 3. The ability to take a multifaceted view of the problems in public administration and their critical analysis 4. Knowledge of the principles, values and values of public administration, [ublic policy processes based on the real context of the countries
List of Mandatory Reading Materials	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Shafritz J.M& Hyde A.C., 2012, Classics of Public Administration 2. Tompkins J.R., 2005 Organizational Theory and Public Management 3. Van der Meer et al, 2015, Civil Service Systems in Western Europe: A Comparative Analysis 4. Kapucu N., 2006, New Public Management: Theory, Ideology and Practice, Handbook of Globalization, Governance, and Public Administration page 885 5. Randma-Liiv T., Drechsler W., 2017 Three decades, four phases: Public administration development in Central and Eastern Europe, 1989-2017 6. SIGMA/OECD PAR, pp. 1-13 7. Innovation for Successful Societies, Rejuvenating the Public Registry: Republic of Georgia, 2006-2008; case study 8. Innovation for Successful Societies, Delivering on the Hope of the Rose Revolution: Public Sector Reform in Georgia, 2004-2009; case study 9. Innovation for Successful Societies, Seizing the Reform Moment: Rebuilding Georgia's Police, 2004-2006; case study 10. Yogyakarta Bus Terminal case study 11. Innovation for Successful Societies, 2012, Moving Beyond Central Planning: Crafting a Modern Polsy Management Sysytem in Latvia, 2000-2006, case study 12. Nemeč J., 2014 Comparative Analysis of PAR in Former Socialist Countries of CEE
List of Supplementary Literature and Other Sources	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Nakrosis V. Bankauskaitė-Grigaliūnienė S., 2014 Public Administration Changes and the Impact of the EU: Agencification and Depoliticisation in Central and Eastern Europe 2. Kovac P. Bileisis M., 2017, Public Administration Reforms in Eastern European Union Member States